

TILT Holdings Announces Official Closing of Jupiter Research Acquisition

As one of the largest cannabis tech deals in history, Jupiter brings massive consumer market opportunity to TILT's portfolio

CAMBRIDGE, Mass.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--January 14, 2019--TILT Holdings Inc. ("TILT" or the "Company") (CSE: TILT) (OTC: SVVTF), a global technology and infrastructure company engaged in research, development, manufacturing and sale of a broad range of products for the cannabis industry, announced today it has officially closed the acquisition of Jupiter Research ("Jupiter"), a leading inhalation and vaporization technology company. This synergistic acquisition broadens TILT's product offerings and increases Jupiter's reach by integrating it into the Company's proprietary supply chain.

The Company signed a definitive agreement on January 2, 2019 to acquire Jupiter Research for US$210 million to bolster TILT's hardware offerings and further optimize the consumer consumption experience. Jupiter is one of the largest companies in the cannabis industry to be acquired, profitably booking US$105M in orders in 2018, with approximately 20% EBITDA margins.

"At TILT, we're focused on building a company that provides services and technology to cannabis companies at all stages. We're strongly positioned at the center of the cannabis ecosystem, and Jupiter's team will add strong consumer expertise to our portfolio," said Alex Coleman, Chief Executive Officer of TILT Holdings. "Jupiter has the best inhalation technology in the industry and has successfully reached the fastest growing segment of vaporizing consumers, and we are excited to accelerate their already dynamic growth. Broadly, consumers across many channels are showing a strong preference for inhalation devices, and Jupiter's pipeline of product introductions will solidify its position as the market device leader in cannabis," Coleman said.

"We anticipate our continued high growth trajectory with the integration of the software and services of TILT's portfolio of companies," says Mark Scatterday, President and CEO of Jupiter Research. "In addition, our new state-of-the-art 12,000 square foot fundamental research and product development center will be operational in Q2 of this year."

Consideration for the Jupiter acquisition is US$210M, consisting of US$70M cash and 56,116,723 common shares of TILT. More information about TILT's other recent acquisitions and moves within the cannabis industry can be found here.

Forward-Looking Information

This news release contains forward-looking information based on current expectations. Forward-looking information is provided for the purpose of presenting information about management's current expectations and plans relating to the future and readers are cautioned that such statements may not be appropriate for other purposes. Forward looking information may include, without limitation, statements regarding the operations, business, financial condition, expected financial results, performance, prospects, opportunities, priorities, targets, goals, ongoing objectives, milestones, strategies and outlook of TILT, and includes statements about, among other things, future developments, the future operations, strengths and strategy of the Company. These statements should not be read as guarantees of future performance or results. These statements are based upon certain material factors, assumptions and analyses that were applied in drawing a conclusion or making a forecast or projection, including TILT's experience and perceptions of historical trends, current conditions and expected future developments, as well as other factors that are believed to be reasonable in the circumstances.

Examples of the assumptions underlying the forward-looking statements contained herein include, but are not limited to those related to: the ability of TILT to obtain necessary financing in the future to pursue its business plans, the achievement of goals, the obtaining of all necessary permits and governmental approvals, as well as expectations regarding availability of equipment, skilled labour and services needed for cannabis operations, intellectual property rights, development, operating or regulatory risks, trends and developments in the cannabis industry, business strategy and outlook, expansion and growth of business and operations, the timing and amount of capital expenditures; future exchange rates; the impact of increasing competition; conditions in general economic and financial markets; access to capital; future operating costs; government regulations, including future legislative and regulatory developments involving medical and recreational marijuana and the timing thereto; receipt of appropriate and necessary licenses in a timely manner; the effects of regulation by governmental agencies; the anticipated changes to laws regarding the recreational use of cannabis; the demand for cannabis products and corresponding forecasted increase in revenues; and the size of the medical marijuana market and the recreational marijuana market.

Although such statements are based on management's reasonable assumptions at the date such statements are made, there can be no assurance that they will be completed on the terms described above and that such forward-looking information will prove to be accurate, as actual results and future events could differ materially from those anticipated in such forward-looking information. Accordingly, readers should not place undue reliance on the forward-looking information. TILT Holdings assumes no responsibility to update or revise forward-looking information to reflect new events or circumstances unless required by applicable law.

By its nature, forward-looking information is subject to risks and uncertainties, and there are a variety of material factors, many of which are beyond the control of TILT, and that may cause actual outcomes to differ materially from those discussed in the forward-looking statements. These factors include, but are not limited to: denial or delayed receipt of all necessary consents and approvals; need for additional capital expenditures; increased costs and timing of operations; unexpected costs associated with environmental liabilities; requirements for additional capital; reduced future prices of cannabis; failure of plant, equipment or processes to operate as anticipated; accidents, labour disputes and other risks of the cannabis industry; delays in obtaining governmental approvals, permits or financing or in the completion of development or construction activities; title disputes; claims limitations on insurance coverage; risks related to the integration of acquisitions; fluctuations in the spot and forward price of certain commodities (such as diesel fuel and electricity); changes in national and local government legislation, taxation, controls, regulations and political or economic developments in the countries where the Company may carry on business in the future; liabilities inherent in cannabis operations; risks relating to medical and recreational cannabis; cultivation, extraction and distribution problems; competition for, among other things, capital, licences and skilled personnel; risks relating to the timing of legalization of recreational cannabis; changes in laws relating to the cannabis industry; and management's success in anticipating and managing the foregoing factors.
